

PROFILE SUMMARY

- 11 years of work experience in Program Management, Project Management, Strategic Research, Business Analysis, Requirement Elicitation, Identifying root causes and developing work product in Agile (SCRUM) and waterfall SDLC methodologies.
- Extensive experience in Insurance (Life and P&C) and Banking (Mortgage, claims) domain
- Go to person regarding all client communications, client escalations, budgeting, reporting and planning.
- Extensive client facing experience leading strategic Initiatives including offshoring IT projects and systems replacement by working with product partners and geographically diverse teams.
- SCRUM certified professional experienced in Release management and defining the Project Roadmap, Velocity planning and Leadership reports.
- Extensive experience in defining project scope, project initiation, implementing planning and strategy and closure as a Scrum Master.
- Extensive experience to manage the project and track the progress by using the Tools like JIRA.
- Extensive experience to manage the RISK by using Impact Probability grid and define the mitigation strategy.

EDUCATION

- Masters of Business Administration (M.B.A.) – 2009 – NMIMS University, Mumbai, India
- Bachelor of Engineering (B.E.) (Computer Engineering) – 2004 – University of Rajasthan, India

Certifications and Tools:

- Certified Professional Scrum Master™ level I (PSM I)
- JIRA, Confluence, Microsoft Project, MS Visio, Microsoft Office

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

11 YEARS 4 MONTHS

Client: DXC Technology

Apr '17 – Jan'18

Role: Senior Manager – DXC Channel

Location: Los Angeles/ New York

Program Manager handling projects for Metlife account at DXC

- Single point of contact for all client escalations and new project discussions
- Responsible for client management and exploring and initializing new projects and opportunities
- The work profile includes creating a plan to address project goals and working with customer stakeholders/SME's while owning tracking and resolution.
- Maintain accurate program reporting information and up-to-date project assets and metrics while identifying risks and roadblocks.
- Program managing solution roadmap workshops, use case discussions and vendor relations for capability procurement and use case definition.
- Discussing business performance, value generation and lead generation to track business growth goals

Project: Metlife, USA

Project Description: G2C is a Java application migrated from mainframe applications which helps the clients to send the most up to date employee information and loaded to consumer database. This data will be used by various portals like member portal, client portal and doctor portal. G2C makes sure that the data coming from the clients is valid and accurate. G2C does all the complex validations, and generate reports for the clients and necessary actions in case of failure to load the data.

ATUL MATHUR

Role: SCRUM Master/PM

Responsibilities:

- Release coordinator for corporate efforts and define/identify the scope of works
- Create the Project reports to forecast the future work, team velocity and time taken by each process
- Define the definition of done and work with Mphasis PM on resource management
- Coordinate with APO, Business SME's and Implementation team.
- Conduct the SCRUM ceremonies like Daily standup, Sprint Planning, Backlog grooming, Sprint Review/Retrospective.
- Participate/Conduct SCRUM of SCRUMs
- Manage the production issues and adhoc request by leadership team.
- Resolve Impediments, conflicts and shields the team.
- Participate proactively in developing and maintaining standards, tools and best practices.
- Track, monitor and communicate team metrics and progress.
- Walkthrough on Burn down chart and Risk management chart.
- Deflect team distractions, remove execution impediments and escalate issues appropriately.
- Ensure transparency within and outside of team.

Client: USAA

Apr '15 – Apr'-17

Role: Program manager/ Principal Research Analyst

Location: San Antonio, Texas

Program Manager for CTO Architecture and Strategic Research/Innovation Group at USAA

- Primarily focused on handling team providing innovative research and approach towards business problems faced by Business and Architects in the IT strategic roadmap planning and execution
- Responsibilities include leading a team of Research Analysts performing market profiling, identifying desirable functionalities/approach and providing actionable business solutions and approach
- Understanding the client needs, prioritizing the research with Architecture board and responsible for presenting team KPI and performance metrics to client senior management.
- An integral part of profile includes bringing product vendor solutions in the lab and performing specific business use cases to validate functionality and client requirements to prepare a comparison score card
- The deliverables include detailed Project plan, performance metrics, Team forecast, Budget adherence, Research whitepapers, product/approach recommendation and business use case validations

Company: HCL Technologies Ltd

Feb '10 – Apr '15

Role: Deputy Manager

Location: Bangalore, India

Client Name: Genworth - a leading provider of Lenders Mortgage Insurance (LMI)

Industry Sector: Insurance

Project Description: We were working with the client in claims administration area. The client was using Guidewire Claims center for Mortgage claims. The scope of work included Application Maintenance, Enhancement and Support and product version upgrade for :

- Oxygen – This is a claims application based on ClaimCenter V5.0. It includes claims application interfaces, Reporting and Configuration

Duration: (Mar 2014 – Apr 2015)

Role: SCRUM Master/Business Analyst

Responsibilities:

- Mentored the core IT team to follow Agile practices instead of waterfall and deliver the project using Scrum
- Gathered requirements from various business teams
- Created stories out of various requirements and planned for implementing them in various iterations

ATUL MATHUR

- Created a story backlog in JIRA and keeps on updating them accordingly
- Base lining of all the business artifacts and requirements implemented in each iteration and release accordingly
- Compliance to schedule and containment of defect leakage

Duration: (Feb 2010 - Mar 2014) – Business Solutions Group

Proactive proposals, Response to RFP's and collateral preparation

- Responsible for end-to-end opportunity life-cycle including bid management & planning, proposal handling, win strategy formulation, solution development, estimations, bid pricing, deal reviews & approvals, proposal defense, due diligence, best & final offer (BAFO) and contract negotiation.
- Understanding customer pain points and recommending solutions, Market research, and competitive intelligence based on sales pursuits.

Strategic Initiatives

- Spearheaded Solution workshops with clients to validate scope and refine the solution offerings
- Worked extensively in giving joint proposals with product partner like eBao, CSC etc. to cement long term partnership and evolution of go to market strategy

Company: Office Depot Reliance

Role: Management Trainee, IT, Supply Chain and Merchandising

Jul '09 – Feb'10

Locations: Navi Mumbai, India

- Identified problem areas and suggested ways to tackle business issues by data generation and analysis for catalogue marketing campaigns.
- Redesigning SKU creation process to improve follow ups by defining department specific response time and escalation matrix
- Involved in process improvements for transparency and better compliance during Supply Chain training.

Company: Schneider Electric India

Role: Software Engineer

Aug '04 – May'07

Locations: Bangalore, India

- Led a team for a prestigious firmware verification project, coordinating across four countries.
- Responsible for project execution, planning, resource requirements, duration, risk analysis and mitigation.
- Member of steering committee responsible for obtaining quality certification (CMMI Level 3).

SUMMER INTERNSHIP

TATA COMMUNICATIONS (Corporate Strategy Department)

- Formulated Market Entry Strategy for TATA Communications in middle-east markets (U.A.E., Qatar and Bahrain)
- Assessed market attractiveness from the macroeconomic, regulatory and telecom market perspective